Open Position: Campus Minister

Details:

We're looking for a Campus Minister to step into the mission at either Christopher Newport University in Newport News, VA or James Madison University in Harrisonburg, VA by discipling students and helping raise up Christ-centered leaders. We are also looking to hire a campus minister to reach international students here in Virginia. You will come alongside college students through one-on-ones (our bread and butter), Bible studies, and family gatherings (meals and conversations).

At CMOV, we believe healthy ministry begins with healthy people. That's why we work hard to create a family-oriented culture where your personal life is honored and supported through generous vacation time, monthly retreat days, mental health resources, and strong, ongoing relationships with fellow Campus Ministers and Executive staff. Our roots are in the Independent Christian Church.

This role includes partial support raising as an opportunity to invite others into the ministry, and CMOV will provide hands-on guidance and support throughout the entire process.

Devoted to Christ; sent with a purpose.
